Set Sail for a Voyage of Discovery!

Welcome to Autumn’s vibrant season of events at the Guildhall Arts Centre!

A big part of our Autumn season will be a ‘Voyage of Discovery’ where we host a huge selection of talks, events and theatre shows as part of this year’s science and arts festival Gravity Fields between 26 to 30 September. Inspired by Grantham’s most famous son, Sir Isaac Newton, who was born and raised at Woolsthorpe Manor and went to school in Grantham, this year’s festival also celebrates the 250th anniversary of Captain Cook’s famous journey to the South Pacific with Lincolnshire born botanist Sir Joseph Banks. Check out the full festival programme online www.gravityfields.co.uk, or pick up a brochure from the Box Office.

Other season highlights are Chantry Dance’s ‘Dracula: Welcome to D’s’, fabulous family show ‘Monstersaurus’, comedy drama ‘Not: Lady Chatterley’s Lover’ and cutting edge digital show from Tom Dale, ‘I Infi nite’. This is all in addition to a great selection of fi lms and PLUS don’t forget to book your tickets for this year’s fun packed panto ‘Dick Whittington’!

Finally, I’m proud to announce that South Kesteven District Council has appointed a new Head of Arts, Michael Cross, who will play a key role in InvestSK’s work to drive our cultural activity and regeneration. I know that the artistic and cultural vibrancy of our district is enormously important in making SK a great place to live and visit. I hope that you will look out for outreach events across the district where we hope to collect your thoughts and ideas that will feed into our new cultural strategy for 2019/20. On behalf of everyone in the Guildhall Arts Centre’s hardworking team, whether you are a regular visitor or you are thinking of visiting for the fi rst time, we look forward to giving you a warm welcome soon!

South Kesteven District Council is proud to present our fourth Gravity Fields Festival. The festival is inspired by Grantham’s most famous son, Sir Isaac Newton, who was born and raised at nearby Woolsthorpe Manor and went to school here in Grantham.

This year we have assembled another fantastic line-up of nationally and internationally renowned scientists and some of the best contemporary talent in the art world.

A highlight of our outdoor programme will be on Saturday 29 September, when there will be an incredible interpretation of Banks’ Endeavour voyage in the centre of town. Don’t forget your camera! The festival is based in and around Grantham, but we’re also delighted that Newton’s family home, Woolsthorpe Manor, will be opening its doors again this year as one of our venues.

Check out the full festival programme online www.gravityfields.co.uk, or pick up a brochure from the Guildhall Art Centre Box Office.

However, her plan goes completely awry. Millie’s wealthy boss is slow in proposing marriage, and the man she actually falls in love with doesn’t have a dime to his name – or so he tells her. OFF THE GRID
HALF MOON THEATRE
TUE 27 NOV - 7PM
Developed in partnership with young people, Off the Grid is an immersive new play by David Lane that navigates a shocking and heart breaking human story through the underbelly of a hidden society. Follow Connor and Kelly over seven years and discover if their own tale is as hopeful as the fiction they’ve clung on to for their very existence.
Connor and Kelly are brother and sister. They share the same birthday, but ten years apart. Since the disappearance of their parents, when Kelly was three, they have been dependent on each other for survival. Connor is everything to Kelly: dad, brother, mum, friend – and storyteller. They’ve learned how important it is to believe in something fantastic when you’re living off the grid.
But what happens when you discover you’ve made the wrong decision? Forced to back down, do you sacrifice your beliefs in order to stay together?
Off the Grid is presented by Half Moon, the UK’s leading small-scale theatre company making work for young people and follows on from the company’s 2017 award winning co-production with Lincolnshire company Zest Theatre ‘What Once Was Ours – Off West End OFFIE Award for Best Production for Young People.
