MAYBE DICK

Herman Melville's classic tale of revenge and retribution is retold in this inventive, comedic adventure on the high seas from the company behind 'Just Like That! The Tommy Cooper Show' and 'Dracula! One Bloody Fang After Another'. Nantucket, 1841. Ishmael signs on to the Pequod, and witnesses the perils of nature, obsession, punning and physical comedy, as Captain Ahab conducts a reckless pursuit of the savage white whale, Moby Dick. All plot will be lampooned. All jokes will be harpooned.

"Absolutely brought the house down" - Lincolnshire World

"You will be hit with wave after wave of silliness, leaving a warm glow and a great big smile." - Review Culture

"The jokes came thick and fast. We left with huge, aching smiles." - TheatreFest

FOREVER ELTON

WITH HIS BAND

"Better than the real thing"

"Brilliant!"

"Great performance, thoroughly entertaining"

SATURDAY 18TH MAY, 7:30PM

FOREVER ELTON — THE GREATEST HITS

Award winning film composer Phil Mountford brings his band to pay tribute to the music of the most enduringly successful singer/songwriters of their generation, Sir Elton John and Bernie Taupin. With a back catalogue and sales that were only exceeded by Elvis and The Beatles, Phil and his band perform all the greatest hits to perfection and totally live.

Take a musical journey with us, as you hear Elton's best loved songs that include Your Song, I'm Still Standing, Circle Of Life, Crocodile Rock, Don't Let The Sun Go Down, Benny And The Jets, Candle In The Wind and many more. So if you're a massive fan of Sir Elton as Phil is, make sure you don't miss this performance!

FUNHOUSE COMEDY

This month's comedy night features Paul 'Silky' White, Rob Deering, Nick Everitt and compere Spiky Mike. Paul 'Silky' White is a comedian and musician from Liverpool. Since 1994 he has avoided adulthood, wealth and financial security by doing something he loves instead. Rob Deering performs stand-up comedy with music, using a guitar, a loop pedal and his voice to create impressive rock and pop soundscapes – and do jokes, of course.

PRIDE AND PREJUDICE

After last year's tour of 'Sense and Sensibility' Hotbuckle are back with their unique style of adaptations of classic novels. The virtuoso company have been entertaining audiences for over twelve years with their inventive interpretations of familiar texts. Previous productions have included, Great Expectations, Jane Eyre, Tess of the d'Urbervilles, Wuthering Heights, David Copperfield and Les Miserables, as well as Austen's Persuasion and Emma. Hotbuckle are renown for their fast-paced, multi-role playing adaptations which cross age and gender traditions, and in their latest offering, Hotbuckle invites us to enter the world of The Bennets. From the headstrong Elizabeth Bennet to the proud Mr Darcy, Hotbuckle's rich characterisations abound in this latest adaptation by skilled writer Adrian Preatler. Full of humour and invention, this is story-telling at its finest, as we meet five sisters who deal with marriage, morality and misconceptions in unique Hotbuckle style. This is Jane Austen as you've never experienced her before, so, get your tickets and Hotbuckle up, for the carriage ride of your life!

THE LITTLE PRINCE LYNGO THEATRE

A collaboration between Lyngo Theatre and Norwich Puppet Theatre. 'Has a sheep on a star eaten a rose?' If that sounds silly then you might be like the King and the Business-Man on their lonely asteroids, forgetting that the most important things can only be understood with the heart. The Little Prince is here to remind us in Lyngo's new collaboration with Norwich Puppet Theatre. Through mesmerising puppetry and beautiful music the boy who fell to earth teaches his friend the Aviator about love, life and real happiness in this adaptation of one of the best-selling children's books of all time.

£5 standard (£15 family of 4) | Suitable for ages 5+

We believe everyone should get the chance to experience live theatre, which is why we are offering discounted tickets to this performance. If you're looking for an unforgettable introduction to live theatre for your child, this could be just the ticket! For only £5 per person or £15 for a family of four, seize the opportunity and make lasting memories!

FRIDAY 31ST MAY, 7:30PM

THE NICK ROSS ORCHESTRA – D-DAY CONCERT

A very special concert to mark the 80th anniversary of the D-Day landings along the Normandy coast during World War II. There are those who watch and listen who tap a shy finger to the melodies, others who follow with a silent foot-beat, still others who murmur softly through the lyrics and those who simply permit a fleeting smile. But common to all are memories. Recapture the sounds of a bygone era as the Nick Ross Orchestra presents ‘an unmissable evening of music and song’ – the classic big band sound of the 1940s & 50s.

£27.50 (£25 concessions)

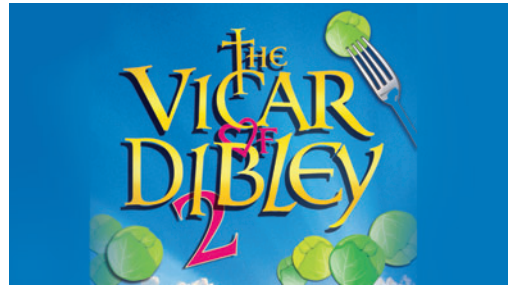

SATURDAY 1ST JUNE, 7:30PM

THE MONOCLE

Welcome to The Monocle, where nothing is impossible! This highly virtuosic contemporary dance performance featuring the voluptuous jazz chanteuse Imogen Banks presents the untold story of Le Monocle, a secretly notorious lesbian cabaret in 1930s Paris. Inside The Monocle the air is thick, warm and wavy with secrets and sensuality. Women laugh loudly, drink the night away and abandon themselves into smooth and passionate dances. Just for one night, be our guest at The Monocle and experience the joy of what it feels like to be in a truly safe space. The performance contains scenes of a sensual nature, adult themes, partial nudity and reference to chest binding.

'Mathieu offers us a gift here: the opportunity to see what it looks like to be free in a safe space' - Helen Redfern, NARC Magazine

'The piece is a fascinating interpretation of a historical moment in Europe helping to make subcultures visible' - Tamzin Mackie, Culture North East

GRAFFITI CLASSICS

Who are Graffiti Classics? 16 strings, 8 dancing feet and 4 voices with 1 aim: to make classical music wickedly funny and fantastically exhilarating for everyone, young and old. Graffiti Classics burst the elitist boundaries of the traditional string quartet with their hilarious all-singing, all-dancing musical comedy show. It's a classical concert, a gypsy-folk romp, an opera, a stand-up comedy set and a brilliant dance show all rolled into one!

From Beethoven to Bluegrass, Baroque to Pop, Mozart or Offenbach to Elvis, Strauss to Saturday Night Fever, there really is something for everyone and Graffiti Classics never fail to get audiences laughing, clapping and singing along. Kids and adults alike love the uplifting and virtuosic variety of musical styles, all tied together with cheeky audience interaction.

WELCOME TO THE GUILDHALL ARTS CENTRE

We're delighted to welcome you back to the Guildhall Arts Centre for another exciting season of events. Notice anything different? We've revamped our brochure with a fresh new look, and we hope you love it! We value your input and if you have any feedback on our new brochure, please don't hesitate to reach out by emailing the box office.

Once again, we're delighted to present an extensive array of entertainment this season. Of particular note is the eagerly awaited return of 'Music In Quiet Places'. Those who have experienced these events before can attest to the sheer delight they offer during the summer months! For those yet to attend a performance, 'Music In Quiet Places' seamlessly blends classical music with the breathtaking ambience of historical churches, promising an enchanting summer evening filled with music.

Since its launch in September 2023, our Pay It Forward scheme has seen remarkable success, and we owe it all to you! Your generous contributions have enabled us to offer complimentary tickets to children and families who may never have experienced theatre before or might not have been able to attend otherwise. The overwhelming support we've received in donations has truly exceeded our expectations, and we're excited to continue with this impactful initiative. Thank you for making a difference!

While you're with us, have you ever considered volunteering? At the Guildhall Arts Centre, our dedicated team of volunteers play a crucial role in creating a welcoming atmosphere for our audiences, ensuring their visits are as enjoyable as can be. Our existing team of volunteer ushers are a brilliant group of individuals who deliver excellent customer service and are all passionate about supporting the arts centre and the work we do. If you would like to join our team or simply want more information, please visit our website for application details and forms.

We look forward to welcoming you soon.
