

Welcome

Summer 2022 sees another fantastic season of live events, including music, drama, workshops and more!

We are feeling patriotic as the popular Neil Sands and his talented West End cast return to the arts centre with 'Happy and Glorious', a celebration of Her Majesty the Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

This season is packed full of music, starting with The Ultimate Commitments and Blues Brothers, as well as Dervish, Damien O Kane, and more!

After a long (but worthwhile wait) we can finally Rock into 2022 with some of Grantham's finest entertainers this May.

There's a disco for everyone this Summer! We look forward to hosting another Disco for Grown Ups in the ballroom, as well as continuing The Groove - our disco for adults with additional needs. May sees the return of the ever-popular Disco Toddlers - our fortnightly disco for pre-schoolers and their families.

We are looking forward to the return of Theatre Fideri Fidera with their latest family show Ugg n Ogg this May. And the family fun doesn't end there - this Summer holidays we will be hosting a range of family workshops, so keep an eye out on social media for full details. Our resident youth drama group New Youth Theatre will be hosting a Summer camp where your budding stars can learn a mini production in five days. Want to check out their work first? You can see them in action this July as they perform their next musical - High School Musical Jr.

If that wasn't enough, 2022 also sees the return of Music in Quiet places. We hope you will join us out and about in local churches this Summer.

On behalf of the Arts Centre Staff, we look forward to welcoming you soon.
